

Whatever you do, please do not take away the right for XM Radio to continue to broadcast weather, traffic, or any other public information. Satellite radio is the wave of the future, and the sooner everyone realizes this the better off we will be. Their presence will make "regular" radio better.